

YESTERDAYS...

A brief glance back at the lives and lifestyles of Australian women.

It seems the beer of old had secret medicinal qualities and was promoted as a healthy tonic. How times have changed! Here's a typical advertisement from 1933: "It's easy to keep well if you drink Sheaf Stout regularly. Sheaf Stout – it's Tooth's." These words were accompanied by a picture of a contented-looking elderly lady drinking a glass of the famed, wholesome brew.
