

YESTERDAYS...

A brief glance back at the lives and lifestyles of Australian women.

Showing off simply wasn't done on the ballroom floor in the 1920s: "For the sake of others dancing, do not indulge in 'stunting'. Eccentric spins, dips and lengthy pauses are disconcerting to the couples in the near neighbourhood. Such displays are all very well for the stage, but bad taste in the ballroom. Do not, either, illustrate new steps for your partner's benefit in the midst of the crowded floor."