

Dixie Chicks – HOME

Though I am not a huge country music fan, Dixie Chicks latest album "Home" is unreal. With a slight feel of your typical country music throughout the songs - this album has much more bluegrass and soft rock in it. Songs like "Travelin Soldier" and "Top of the World" are awesome ballads that are complimented with songs like "White Trash Wedding" and "Long Time Gone" where the true bluegrass - rock feel comes through. The lyrics are literally filled to the edge with emotion that you cannot help yourself singing along with the girls. "Home" is a remarkable album and is the Dixie Chicks best album by far. This album belongs on your stereo just so that you can let that wild bluegrass-rock side of you come through!
