

My Underwater Adventure

Chapter One-The Cave

I sigh and look around the classroom. Everyone is writing a story except for me. We were told to write an Underwater Adventure. Everyone is locked in a wonderful world Underwater. Even my mates Madeleine and Tara were trapped. Well actually my mate Madeleine was locked in an Underwater World of Greek Gods and who knows what Tara was doing. "How on earth can I write about some Adventure if I have never been on one?" I say. It's no use, this always happens. I yawn and start shutting my eyes...

When I open my eyes I am not in my classroom. I am swimming Underwater in a reef with tonnes of coral. "This is incredible!" I say as I start towards a small cave covered in seaweed. I just love exploring things like this. I shiver. My eyes start to blink uncontrollably as I enter the black Underwater cave. "I wonder if this cave leads to some way out." I mutter. Well, I try to but all that comes out is lots of bubbles.

I keep on swimming until I come to a fork in the cave. I turn to go right when a strange feeling comes over me. Slowly I turn left and enter cautiously. "I hope I never ever find a cave like this again." I say. It's true though who would want to swim in a lifeless cave like this.

Chapter Two-The Shipwreck

I sneak around a corner of the cave to see a Shipwreck just before my eyes. "Wow!" I breath "This cave is really creepy." I look back at the Shipwreck. "This Wreck must have happened about a century ago." I murmur. I peer over to have a closer look. I can just make out some markings on the ship- The Titan it says. "Awesome!" I go towards the ruins and study them for a possible entrance to this old ship...

Minutes later and I'm swimming in this very interesting, spectacular ship. As I turn around a corner I start to shiver uncontrollably. At once I know something is very wrong. When I turn around I shriek. (Well I try to) There in front of my very own eyes is the most deadly shark in the world... The Great White!!

Chapter Three- The End?

The shark starts eyeing me hungrily. Just luckily I'm a good swimmer. Out through the entrance I shoot. This is a very bad move. Outside of the Shipwreck are 2 other sharks. They start to sharpen their teeth on some coral nearby. "Oh no!" I say "THIS IS THE END!" All I see is black.

I blink. I sighed and looked around the classroom. Everybody was writing a story including me. We were told to write an Underwater Adventure. Everybody was locked in a wonderful world Underwater, and I was too.
