

INGHAM THEATRE GROUP INC.

The group has been around for many years and has thrilled and entertained varied audiences in many theatrical styles - the most popular of these being Theatre Restaurant.

Those who traveled on the Orient Express last year were wined, dined and given "The best night's entertainment and good belly laugh had in ages". It certainly was a huge success in every way.

This year, if you wish to participate, you will head off to the Wild West, where you will meet some very, to say the least, interesting and unusual characters. You will be able to obtain your Stage Coach tickets, put on your best western gear, and make your way to the Ingham Bowls Club on the 13th, 14th, 20th, 21st, 27th and 28th of August for a riotous evening, as you experience "Jest at the West" by Judith Prior (author of "A Wink at the Sphinx" if you remember that great show). With Monica Vitale as Director once again, you will recognise most of the actors, but will also be surprised by some new faces.

There will be no extra performances, so it would be a good idea to get in early when tickets go on sale. An opening night special will apply. Keep your eyes and ears open to watch for more information in the Herbert River Express and posters around town as the event draws closer.

YOU WILL BE SORRY IF YOU MISS OUT, BELIEVE ME!
