

IF A BATH TOWEL COULD TALK.

If a bath towel could talk,
It would tell us how it feels.
For to touch a naked body it doesn't balk,
When a towel wipes a body dry its no big deal.

A bath towel wraps around trim, taut or sagging breasts.
And firm , flabby, wrinkly or cute derriere.
Pats dry so tender the cheeks and crests,
Making the skin tingle and feel so merrier.

A bath towel feels and dries thighs and shapely legs,
All the way down it happily goes.
Wiping the left then the right knees and legs.
Till it reaches the feet and ten toes.

A bath towel dries the hair, face , arms and shoulders with no fuss.
Caressing the back then once more the heels.
If a bath towel could only talk , it would tell us,
How great it feels.

VERA CUTTING.
